

Employee Voice[™]

An IBM product

Real-time employee insights to improve business performance

The NEXT GENERATION Employee Engagement product built on IBM WATSON TALENT.

Listen Continuously

The World is Changing

Time to Act is Now

- Employees now have the mindset of consumers.
- The voice of the employee is more powerful than ever before.
- Technology gives us the ear to listen.
- Collective voice of employees is a competitive advantage for customers' buying decision.
- In absence of an outlet to express their voice, employees find other channels to express their frustration at being ignored.

Shift from annual surveys to Continuous Engagement.

Employees today are demanding More Transparency and honesty.

Shift in being More Agile and driving change on a constant basis.

Organizations are investing in Big Data and Analytics.

Mobile Usage among employees continues to rise.

HR professionals shifting to Strategic Advisors to the business.

IBM High Performance Engagement model

With 30 years of extensive research on High Performance Organization, IBM Kenexa identified the multi-dimensional impact of employee engagement on business results. A key finding of this research states that engagement alone is not sufficient to ensure high performance; energized employee must be enabled to reach their full potential.
